

Describe the contribution of animal husbandry in the Indian economy & how empowering this sector will lead to agricultural sustainability.

Live stock plays an important role in Indian economy. India is the fastest growing economy and more than 70% population earnings are from agricultural and animal husbandary sector.

Covid-19 which has its impact on India economy, the Union government has come up with Animal Husbandary Infrastructure development fund (AHIFD). As per the provisions, an individual can avail loan amount upto 90% of estimated cost with a detailed project report submission, the project can be of milk collection ~~sectors~~ centres, setting up bulk milk coolers (or) it can be enhancing the quality of animal feed in urban areas. This reduces the unemployment, increases startup culture there by increasing GDP.

Indian livestock industry makes up for significant amount of world's livestock resources. Both nation of economy as well as socio-economic growth. Apart from its performance, there exists some threats also which we need to consider and take the global market opportunities.